Summary

I am an accomplished sales and marketing professional with over a decade of experience working with reputable organizations like G.I. Pvt Ltd Karachi and Pearl Confectionery Pvt Ltd Karachi. My expertise lies in managing tenders, institutional sales, and export product development. With an MBA in Marketing from the Dadabhoy Institute of Higher Education, I have cultivated strong skills in business strategy, customer engagement, and market research.

During my tenure at G.I. Pvt Ltd, I successfully managed high-profile government tenders for the Pakistan Navy and Pakistan Army, developed business strategies, and consistently achieved aggressive sales targets. At Pearl Confectionery Pvt Ltd, I specialized in coordinating product development, packaging design, and liaising with cross-functional teams to ensure timely and quality delivery of export orders. My ability to analyze market trends, understand customer needs, and implement tailored solutions has consistently driven exceptional results.

I possess advanced technical skills, including proficiency in Microsoft Power BI, Python libraries, SQL, and creative tools like Adobe Illustrator and Canva. I am adept at leveraging online platforms such as WordPress, Amazon, and Alibaba for digital marketing, lead generation, and customer engagement. My experience spans comprehensive marketing activities, including ATL, BTL, and TTL campaigns, SMS marketing, and customer data management.

In addition to my technical expertise, I excel in communication, persuasion, and relationship-building. I have a proven track record of managing customer orders and ensuring timely deliveries while maintaining service excellence. My focus on operational efficiency, problem-solving, and collaboration has been instrumental in my professional success.
